

What is Periodic Driver CPC?

You must do 35 hours of periodic training every 5 years to keep your Driver Certificate of Professional Competence up to date, and to be able to drive a lorry, bus, or coach for a living.

You can check how many hours of CPC training you've done in the current 5-year period by following this link below.

You only need to complete one set of training every 5 years if you drive both lorries and buses professionally.
